HOBBIES

Programmed tools for my own use i.e. Finance web app & Literature Review web app. The latter project was to managed my literature reading for my FYP (Final Year Project). Progressively increase my coding style to follow the KISS (Keep It Short and Simple) & DRY (Don't Repeat Yourself) principles. Recently starts delving into unit testing within the JavaScript ecosystem to produce more stable code. Readable code benefits the whole party involved within the development.
